ISLAM IN AFRICA BOOK AWARD - 2026 NOMINATION FORM

The Islam in Africa Book Award is awarded annually at the African Studies Association (ASA) Annual Meeting to the author of the best book in the field of Islam in Africa published in the previous calendar year (copyright date). Established in 2026, the award is co-sponsored by the Institute for the Study of Islamic Thought in Africa (ISITA) and the Islam in Africa Studies Group (IASG), a coordinate organization of the ASA.

Complete this form online and save it as a pdf file or print it and complete by hand. Submit the completed form with your nomination.

To verify eligibility, the Award Committee will look at the book's copyright page. The copyright year must be 2024 or 2025 for the book to be eligible for the 2026 cycle.
